

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, RIVERSIDE

I A W P

Inland Area Writing Project

Presents

Using On-Demand Exams as Teaching Tools in the High School Classroom

Workshops may range from two to five hours depending on sites' requirements. Participants will have the opportunity to:

- Examine the University of California AWPE (Analytical Writing Placement Exam/formerly Subject A), CAHSEE, AP
- Design lessons and educational materials which develop critical reading and writing skills
- Participate in writing and norming sessions offered by UC instructors, trained by ETS and Pearson Testing Services.

Open to all interested secondary instructors and administrator, this workshop can qualify for university credit.

For further information, you may contact:

Jean Bristol, Professional Development Co-Director (909) 931-1391 bristoljp@roadrunner.com

Sharen Topham, Administrative Assistant (951) 827-3666 sharen.topham@ucr.edu

The Inland Area Writing Project is NCLB approved and is also affiliated with the National Writing Project and the California Writing Project.