Inland Area Writing Project presents the

Professional Development Institute

The Professional Development Institute is based on the National Writing Project Invitational Institute model.

The PDI is a five day institute focusing on the various writing applications as defined by the California State Standards. Participants will receive strategies for instructing the applications and opportunities for writing.

The schedule for secondary schools is:

Day One: Descriptive/Narrative Writing
Day Two: Reflective Writing
Day Three: Analytical/Expository Writing
Day Four: Persuasive/Argument Writing
Day Five: Subject A/CAHSEE/Assessment Writing

The schedule for elementary schools is:

Day One: Descriptive Writing
Day Two: Narrative Writing
Day Three: Reflective Writing
Day Four: Analytical/Expository Writing
Day Five: Persuasive/Argument Writing

This workshop qualifies for professional growth credit and four units of university credit
